ANNOUNCEMENTS

BREED THEATER.

The Marvelous Pathe Weekly Shows
Items of Local Interest.

This week the Breed is showing the marvelous Pathe Weekly, the greatest news-picture in the world, and presenting as it does, the most interesting items or events of two worlds. It is a continuing fact that New England is not wholly forgotten in the recording of these. Conspicuous on the long list of happenings is the great parade at New Haven in its well remembered New Haven day. Seen also is the steamship Minnesota, built and launched at Groton for the Great Northern Steamship company. She is being loaded in the most approved manner, with the largest cargo ever loaded in a ship's hold—16,000 tons dead weight. President Taft is also to be seen speaking from the city hall, Worcester, while on his way to Mrs. Torrey's school to spend his birthday. An inspiring sight is the regatta at Cowes, England, in which the speedy sailing craft are seen dipping water at every wave. Misleading Evidence, one of the famous moonshiner pictures, has a story that is thrilling and interesting and shows many clever ruses used to capture the wary moonshiners. Mr. Matt Bennett is heard with Mr. Calkins in a captivating duel.

Auditorium Has Wonderfully Strong Show for Last of This Week—Al. Aubrey, Local Acrobat, Makes First Norwich Appearance.

The management of the Auditorium are offering what they believe to be one of the best all-around shows ever seen in a popular priced vaudeville house. Features predominate. An act that is a headliner in any vaudeville house in the world is The Last of the Regiment, a spectacular military story in song. This act features Mr. Al. Cameron and company of five people, six in all, in what is without a doubt the best act of its kind in existence. Massive sets of special scenery are carried. See this one.

Al. Aubrey is a well known Norwich athlete who has traveled with the famous 4 Lukers for years as their boxer, and he has the distinction of being the first man to accomplish a triple somersault. Mr. Aubrey has never appeared in his home town until today, when he will offer a gymnastic novelty comprising ground tumbling, Roman rings, trapeze and iron-jaw work. He is ably assisted by Miss Loretta, a dainty and accomplished lady gymnast.

It is predicted that Molly Wood, the Irish violinist, will register an emphatic hit, as this clever musician is the equal of the so-called virtuosos. The Auditorium management knows just what kind of pictures please the Norwich public, and just such a set is shown today. Stolen Glory is a Keystone comedy that cost over $5,000 to produce (and cost for comedy films). The Gaumont Weekly, No. 34, shows Colonel Roosevelt's return home after the Milwaukee shooting; also many other views.

This show will doubtless be a record breaker, so all that desire a seat are advised to attend the matinee or else get in early at night.

YANTIC HAPPENINGS

Superintendent George W. Emerson Conducts Teachers' Meeting—Lecture on Relation of Agriculture to Education Planned.

William McHale is recovering from a severe illness.

Advised With Teachers.
Supt. George W. Emerson of Willimantic visited some of the Franklin schools Monday. He attended a teachers' meeting and also held a teachers' meeting in the Fifth district. He spoke about various subjects treated in the course of study and suggested many ways of improving the work of the pupils. The next meeting will be held in the school taught by Miss Blanche Smith on Lebanon road, Dec. 2d.

Public Lecture Planned.
It is planned to have a meeting of all the schools in the town hall during the month, when all the townspeople are to be invited to hear a lecture on the relation of agriculture to education in the public schools. An interesting programme is being prepared by the committee in charge.

Brief Local Notes.

Charles Lamotte is confined to the house with a severe attack of rheumatism.

Mr. George Sherman picked two dandelion blossoms near her house, Monday morning.

Miss Alicia and Helen Lyons of Peabodick, R. I., are spending the week with relatives at Pine Tree cottages.

Charles Arnold spent Tuesday in Pomfret.

Miss Nellie Kilroy was a visitor at Ocean Beach Sunday.

Fred Ladd of Plainfield spent Sunday in town, coming to cast his vote.

Assembling Ties.

The local railroad yard is rapidly filling up with ties taken from the W. F. Williams woods.

Automobiles were around the village Tuesday carrying the voters to and from the polls.

Miss Mary Rose Soule spent Saturday with relatives in Baltic.

Stanley Woods of Stafford Springs spent a few days recently with friends here.

Miss Bertha Weeks is spending the week in Willimantic with Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Weeks.

At Hartford Wedding.

Miss Alice Laughlin has returned from a week's stay in Hartford, where she attended the Sullivan-Porta wedding.

Kenneth Bates of Mystic spent the week with Charles Frick.

Miss Maud Lamotte spent the week end in Baltic with her brother, Emanuel Lamotte.

James Turnbull has returned from a few days' stay in Ashaway, R. I., where he has been the guest of his brother, Thomas Turnbull.

Three Fawns in Pasture.

John R. McHale, Jr., saw three little deer in his pasture Tuesday. They did not appear at all wild.

Onions exported from Egypt during the first half of the year weighed 265 million pounds; against 265 million pounds during January-June, 1911, and 121 million pounds the same period in 1910.

No More Constipation

It's Me for Olive Tablets!

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel. Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years, and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing laxative. No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normal. They never force them to unnatural action. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are so easy to take that children do not regard them as "medicine" at all. If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—a sick headache—torpid liver and constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Olive Tablets at bedtime. They're perfectly harmless. Thousands take one every night just to keep light. Try them. "Every little Olive Tablet has a movement all its own." 10c and 25c per box. The Olive Tablet Co., Columbus, O.

Brief State News

New Britain.—The finances of the New Britain board of public works are so low that a number of bills will have to remain unpaid until after February 1.

Waterbury.—Secretary of the Federated Boys' clubs of the United States Frederick Duckless of Boston paid a visit to Waterbury Friday evening and inspected the local Boys' club.

Rockville.—Rockville is to have a city election the first Monday of December. Only ward officers are to be chosen at this time, as the city officials hold over for another year.

Huntington.—Saturday marked the one hundredth anniversary of the dedication of the present church building in St. Paul's parish, in Huntington, and the event was duly celebrated.

Torrington.—The silver jubilee of St. Francis' R. C. church will be observed on November 17. The sermon will be preached by Rev. Thomas Cummings of Massachusetts, formerly curate of St. Francis' parish.

Berlin.—Dr. R. M. Griswold has offered a prize of $5 for the best essay on "Christian Labor," from his Early Settlement to 1775, written by a member of the graduating class of the Worthington grammar school.

Meriden.—Within a few days Mayor Donovan and the commissioners of the board of public works will sign a contract with the Meriden Electric Light company to furnish the city with street lighting for five years at a saving of $13,000.

Bridgeport.—In reply to his father's query that he was shiftless and didn't have 15 cents, William Thorpe in the superior court produced a bank book showing a balance of $1,575.15. It was also shown that he saved that amount while working as a farm hand at wages of $20 a month.

Redding.—Mr. and Mrs. John T. Carroll of Redding, Ridge, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on Saturday afternoon. The couple were married by Rev. Father Smith of St. Mary's church, Norwich, where Mrs. Carroll sang in the choir for 14 years. Mr. Carroll is a prosperous farmer of Redding Ridge.

Cuttings of grapes, gooseberries, currants and many ornamental shrubs can be made this month. Tie them in bundles and store in barrels of sand for the winter. Keep them in a cool, frostproof cellar. The cuttings should be made of well ripened shoots of the current season's growth. Make them from six to ten inches long and containing at least two buds. The lower cut must be made just beneath a bud.

After the Age of Fifty

From this age the human system gradually declines and the accumulated poisons in the blood cause rheumatism in joints, muscles and back. These warnings should be promptly relieved and serious illness avoided by using the following prescription which comes from a noted doctor and is said to have no equal in the treatment of these ailments. Restore physical vigor. Good results come after the first dose. "From your druggist get one ounce of Toris compound (in original package) and one ounce of syrup of Sarsaparilla compound. Take these two ingredients home and put them into a half pint of good whiskey. Shake the bottle and take a tablespoonful before each meal and at bedtime. If your druggist does not have Toris compound in stock he will get it for you in a few hours from his wholesale house. Don't be influenced to take a patent medicine instead of this. Insist on having the genuine Toris compound in the original one ounce, sealed, yellow package."

SORE FEET. Corns, Callouses, Bunions, Frost Bites, Aching and Sweaty Feet. A spoonful of Calomel in the foot-bath gives instant relief. Get a 25c box at any drug store.

A FEW SEASHORE LOTS

Situated in the Town of Willimantic, R. I., fronting the Atlantic Ocean, on one of the best bathing beaches in the state. These lots are fifty (50) feet frontage on ocean and one hundred (100) feet deep. The price of these lots is two hundred ($200) dollars. Remember the prices that were paid for lots at Pleasant View four years ago and the prices that are being paid now. These cottage sites that I am offering for only $200 are on the same ocean, same beach, only a few miles east of Pleasant View. Here is a chance to buy a seashore cottage site at a low figure and have it increase in value many fold in a year or two. Avail yourselves of this opportunity and don't be among those who will say "I wish I had bought one of those lots over and remember if you purchase one I pay your expenses for any distance not over 100 miles. Transportation from Westerly in auto. Inclusive."

POETRY

OPTIMISM.

Things are never quite as bad as they could be.
Though a summer that's frigid isn't nice,
Though it makes us shun the hammock beneath the tree,
And wish that coal sold at a lower price.
One's collar doesn't sag,
Like a corrugated rag,
And we needn't bruise our fingers chopping ice.

Things could always be less lovely than they are;
You will think that this is stretching it, perhaps.
But conditions in an overcrowded car would be awful if there were not any straps.
When we went round the curves "I would be fearful on the nerves" Of the passengers who happened to have laps.

Things are never at their worst; the henpecked man
May fancy that his lils are hard to bear.
He may have to get along as best he can
With no nights off and very little hair.

He may lead a gloomy life
With his grim and bossy wife,
But he might have been a Turk and had a pair.

The dearest conditions might become less lovely than we find them day by day.
Why show the world a visage that is grim
When you might pretend, at least, that you are gay?
Be as blithe as you can be,
If your credit is a p. p.
For you won't have any monthly bills to pay.
—S. E. Kiser, in the Chicago Record-Herald.

THE CITY TREE

From out the battered soil that lies
'Tween bounds of walk and driveway space,
Up to the smoky, half-tilted skies
It springs in sturdy, spry grace.
And oh, how much it means to me,
My solitary city tree.

For on its boughs the seasons show
Their varied beauty; Spring's pale green
Summer's rich tones, Fall's staid
The miracles of wood and leaf
Come to me through my city tree.

It gives storm music, leaf-blown song;
Yet to my soul shows something higher—
Stability that makes me strong,
And growth that stirs me to aspire.
So sense and spirit revel free
In bounties from my city tree.
—Orelda W. Haskell, in Leslie's.
